

Castiglion del Bosco Toscana, Italy

The Gambero Rosso Guide to Italian Wine, the "bible" of Italian wine, says: "Castiglion del Bosco is adept at dealing with the uncertainties presented by the various individual site climates in different years...Results have been quick to come through, particularly given how slowly things tend to go in the countryside."

2005 Rosso di Montalcino DOC

Pleasant and modern wine, characterized by a fresh and well-rounded Sangiovese. Intense varietal aromas are the result of a combination of modern viticultural techniques and tradition. Its versatility makes it a great everyday wine, which can be paired with most foods.

Colour: Ruby red.
Aromas: Fine, with the typical aromas of sangiovese.
Flavours: Harmonious and soft.

$32.50 Consumer
$28.95 Licensee
(750ml x 12)

2003 Brunello di Montalcino DOCG

Ruby red in colour with garnet reflections, the wine is rich and intense on the nose with the typical aroma of the grape varieties. It is harmonious and persistent on the palate.

"Massimo Ferravamo is a man with a mission. He is building a massive new cellar, appointing a new oenologist and restructuring the small village on his property. His wines are always dependable..."

Gambero Rosso Guide to Italian Wines 2005

$82.50 Consumer
$69.95 Licensee
(750ml x 6)

2003 Brunello di Montalcino DOCG Campo del Drago

The wine is the most elegant and complex expression of Sangiovese. The grapes come from the vineyards of the Capanna area, characterized by an excellent exposure, climate and soil characteristics. A powerful wine with great personality, perfect balance between tradition and innovation. This is a wine with a great personality, deep ruby red in colour, rich and persistent on the nose with intense aromas of blackberry. It is well blended with notes of spice conferred from the cask. Complex on the palate, with excellent structure and pleasant harmony.

$115.00 Consumer
$99.95 Licensee
(750ml x 6)

**Prices are estimates only and final prices may be higher or lower****

For more information
<http://www.castigliondelbosco.it/>