

Ironstone Vineyards

Lodi, California

USA

We are very pleased to have Joan Kautz representing her family's winery today. Our best selling line of California wines and no wonder! Ironstone keeps pushing their level of quality to new heights while keeping their prices exactly the same. It certainly does not hurt that Joan lives and works in Toronto. She makes sure this market is well looked after.

2006 Calaveras Reserve Chardonnay

A complex wine with a style that is of classic White Burgundy. The nose opens with exotic notes of spice, followed by aromas of baked apples, peach, and butter. It offers concentrated tropical fruit flavours that marry well with the elegant nuances of vanilla, butterscotch, and mountain-ripe apple. The finish is long and lush with a lingering essence of toasty honey.

2005 Sierra Foothills Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon

The Sierra Foothills Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon is full-bodied and initially reveals rich aromas of fresh blackberries, cassis, and cola. Dark blackberry and sweet, creamy vanilla flavours abound and give way to an enduring finish that is perfectly balanced by this Cabernet's good tannin structure.
